

Scholarship Applicants Must:

- Be a 2020 graduate of a local-area high school or home-school program.
- Plan to attend the 2020 fall semester or 2021 spring semester at an accredited community, state or private college or a licensing vocational trade school (real estate training courses do not qualify). There are no exceptions to the accreditation or licensing requirement.
- Demonstrate stable scholastic achievement (A and B grades for the current school year).

A minimum of 20 $1000 Scholarships will be awarded based on the merit of the applicant's video essay. Scholarships are paid directly to the accredited college or licensing trade school of your choice.

"Passion for Service" is this year's video essay scholarship theme.

Application Process (follow these instructions exactly as outlined):

- 1) Record a video essay detailing an area of community service about which you are passionate. Phone video is acceptable. Be sure to include:
  - a. A description of the service topic
  - b. What prompted your interest in this area of service
  - c. How have you personally supported or been involved in the area of service
  - d. Describe how the opportunity to serve has impacted your life
- 2) The video essay must be:
  - a. 3-5 minutes in length
  - b. Downloadable from your hosting site (YouTube, Vimeo, etc.)
  - c. Cannot be about academics, sports or family dynamics.
- 3) When complete, upload your video essay to an online site of your choice.
- 4) Click this link to access the 2020 Scholarship Application. Complete the application. Be sure to include the online link whereby we can view/download your video.

Your video essay and 2020 Scholarship Application must be available to us no later than March 5, 2020. Winning applicants will be notified on or before April 1, 2020. Submitting a video essay is not a guarantee of scholarship award.

Unfortunately, due to family illness, we are unable to plan a scholarship banquet this year.
